Ridiculous Day Baked Goods & Produce Sale

Friday, August 4

8:00–11:00 am

(Or until sold out)

Lawn in front of the Court House

(note location change)

What was once the task of the UMW is now that of the entire church. This regularly held bake sale raises funds for camper-ships through our church. Anyone who can is asked to provide produce or baked goods or make a contribution.

We will have 3 shifts, 7:00 am set up, 8–9:30 am and 9:30–11:00 am. There is a need for 2 workers for each shift. Kathy Houstman and Becky Young are the coordinators this year. Berrie Glick will be our cashier. Contact Kathy (lkhoustman@yahoo.com or 563-886-6239) or Becky (bbyoung49@gmail.com or 563-357-1245) to sign up for a shift or ask a question.

Please save grocery sacks for us. Items can be dropped off at the church or at the Court House on August 4. Please consider helping out with this great cause.

Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors

Between Sundays ~ Thoughts from Pastor Jenny

The Joys of Writing

When I was in high school, I had a tenth grade English teacher who opened up my world to the expression of writing. I had always been a kid who wrote plays for the neighbor kids to act. I even attempted writing a chapter book. (I still have the unfinished manuscript in a box somewhere.) The new awakening as a teen to writing has served me well in preparing sermons and writing papers for seminary. I enjoy writing! As I complete my seminary courses, there will be some writing for the Board of Ordained Ministry, but not as much as I have done in the past six months for seminary.

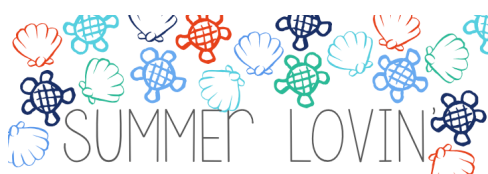

I am looking forward to writing for my own purposes and not because I have to. I have been writing a children's book that remains unfinished, and I would like to finish it and seek publishing. I am also writing about my experiences in ministry, namely the experience of being called by God to serve as a pastor. One way to sort through the many different encounters in pastoral ministry is through journaling. I spend time journaling as a part of my daily devotion and prayer time. I also journal some of my day-to-day experiences. These have turned into essays that I hope one day will be in a book. Sometimes I think the book should be titled, "What Do You Mean, Called?" (These are on the days when I feel inadequate in my work. At other times I think it should be called the "Joys of Serving." I guess that's what the ups and downs of ministry is all about. Mostly, though, I write about how I try each day to do God's will... to attend to God's To-Do list and not my own. It's hard though, because I have my ideas about how things should go.

As your pastor, I spend daily time with God in order to receive guidance to serve in a way that brings people closer in their relationship with Christ. Decisions are made for the church to help us stay true to our mission and vision of making disciples of Jesus Christ in order to transform the world. Quality worship, varied spiritual formation opportunities for all ages, and faithful stewardship of the resources we have are all top priority. I hope you will support the new things coming this fall as they help us follow God's guidance for this church.

-Blessings in Christ, Pastor Jenny

Worship In August

The Summer Lovin' Theme in worship continues with themes that go along with life in the month of August. Pesky Faith addresses the weeds in the garden and in our faith. A Day at the Beach looks at the day Jesus and the disciples had a picnic on the beach after his resurrection. Sunshine, Sunflowers, and the Solar Eclipse provides insight on how Jesus is the Light of the world, AND looks at the upcoming Solar Eclipse on Aug.

21. The Last Days of Summer will address how everything has it's season, like going back to school and our seasons of faith. I hope you will continue to engage the weekly devotionals around each theme. If you missed some, they are available with the bulletins on the church website at www.tiptonumc.org under the worship tab.

Thanksgiving Ingathering Kits

Each month we will share what is needed in one of the kits. This month it's the Sewing Kit.

UMCOR Sewing Kits. . .

Foster independence rather than dependence. Cottage industries often grow out of sewing classes where these kits are used to practice skills.

- 3 yards cotton or cotton-blend fabric (one piece)
- 1 new spool matching thread (medium to large size)
- 5-8 matching flat buttons on card
- 1 sewing scissors
- 1 package hand-sewing needles (in original package)

Wrap sewing notions in fabric and seal in a zip lock bag.

Some other kits to consider putting together are; School kits, Health kits, Layette kits.

The 2017 Ingathering brochure is available at the back of the sanctuary and in the office. Here are a few helpful reminders when putting together kits:

Use ONLY the list of items provided for the kits.

Use ONLY new and unwashed items in kits.

Use ONLY items that have NO political or religious icons, slogans, emblems or sayings.

Send toothbrushes and soap in ORIGINAL wrappers.

Send money for toothpaste separately on remittance form, NOT in kit.

You may send empty school bags; they are valued at $3 each.

Baby sweaters/jackets may be sent and are valued at $6 each.

Mission Market

The Mission Market is now open for fresh garden produce in the Gathering Place. If you have extra produce you'd like to donate, please bring it to the church. Any FREEWILL DONATIONS given for the fruits and vegetables will go to mission projects. Thanks!

Worship Time Change for Fall Beginning September 10

For the past six months there has been a lot of conversation in Creative Worship and among the staff about how we can create more space for groups on Sunday morning and get more time for ministry. We think that we have figured out how to do that with only minimal effect on the current school year schedule.

Here is the proposed Sunday morning schedule:

- 8:30 am – 12:30 pm Nursery available
- 8:15 – 8:45 am Choir Kids Practice with Denise Cartwright
- 8:45 am – 9:45 am Adult GIGs, Adult Classes, Youth Sunday School and Children's Sunday School
- New Children's Sunday School will start with an opening worship in the sanctuary for 15-20 min. Then, children will go to the classroom for 40-45 min. The opening worship will be led by Melinda Stonebraker and Denise Cartwright, including music, Bible story teaching, and prayer.
- 9:45 – 10:00 am Fellowship time in the Gathering Place for all ages.
- 10:00 – 11:00 am Worship
- 11:00 – 11:30 am Fellowship in the Gathering Place for all ages.
- 11:15 am – 12:15 pm New Adult Classes and GIGs meet

Justification for Time Change and Other Details:

1. In order to meet the mission and vision of the church, we need to tweak the schedule a bit. Sunday school is just 15 minutes earlier than it was, and there is only 15 minutes between Sunday school and worship so that people are not waiting too long for the service to start.
2. More time for adult classes with a second time slot after worship.
3. More space for classes by having an after worship time.
4. Fellowship time in the Gathering Place means 2+ groups may meet in the dining room at either time slot and guests have easier access to the fellowship time in the Gathering Place.
5. Will leave the 10:00 am time for worship in the summer instead of changing it.
6. Sunday School teachers are able to be in a GIG or class on Sunday morning with the after worship time
7. 11:15 Nursery time may need to be moved to a larger SS room

Use Your Gifts – Bless Children and Families

We have two great opportunities to bless the lives of children and families. And, of course, we know serving to bless others creates boomerang blessings for those who serve. Please ask God if you're being called to participate in either of these ministries: Friend Ministry and/or Sunday School.

Friend Ministry: Final Call For This Year!

We have had a good response with several adults who want to be part of the Friend Ministry, but we need more because our congregation is blessed with many children! If you've already signed up, great - now, invite a friend or two to sign up also! If you haven't signed up, maybe you don't know what Friend ministry is. It is a new intergenerational ministry to connect adults in our congregation with children and youth. Studies indicate that children and youth who had positive adult influences—in addition to parents—are more likely to be healthy adults. Similar research indicates that the “stickiness” of faith—whether faith sticks from childhood into adulthood—is also influenced by having positive influences from other adults in the church.

Adult Friends will extend the love of Christ and care of the Church by being supportive of their young Friend. This may include greeting them at worship, attending music or sporting events or other extracurricular events, sending birthday cards, making a phone call or sending a text message occasionally to say hello, inquiring to learn more about how they're doing in school, etc. And, of course, praying for your friend. It's really just being a caring adult present in our faith community. Sign up today by talking to Heidi Shumaker, Jen Johnson, Melissa Roth, Melinda Stonebraker, or contacting the church office.

Sunday School Teachers and Helpers Needed

Youth and Adults are needed to serve in children's Sunday School. We will be using a new curriculum and format on Sunday mornings that should make serving in Sunday School a little less time consuming for teachers and more focused on relationship building between teachers and students. If you don't feel you have the knowledge to teach Sunday School, we will help you – and in fact some of it will be done for you in the large group opening each Sunday morning. Grade-level teachers will be responsible for getting to know the students, listening as students grow in faith, and completing simple classroom activities with the guidance of the curriculum. Training is provided and support will be given each week. Each classroom needs three people who will work together to lead. Concerned about missing your adult group time? Adult groups will also be offered after worship on Sundays as well (see page 4 for more information), so teachers can be in an adult group on Sunday as well. Please consider this opportunity for ministry. Contact Melinda Stonebraker with questions or to say “YES”!

We do need LOTS of adults to make this happen. Don't even have to be parents; invite along aunts, uncles, your confirmation mentors . . . just have them fill out a form and turn it in! We have plenty of canoes ready for us, but if there isn't enough adults we will have to limit youth to keep ratios for this to be safe for all.

Backpack Blessing in Worship, Aug. 20

All children, youth, and adults are invited to bring their backpack, book, bag, or work bag to receive a blessing. In worship we will bless the students, teachers, and others who help make the school year and work year a success. Children of all ages may bring their bag up for "From A Child's Point of View" time.

the love that God has for us.
God is love,
and those who remain in love
remain in God and God remains in them.

From Wesley United Methodist Church (Muscatine):

Dear members of First United Methodist Church,

We at Wesley send you our heartfelt thanks for your very generous donation. Obviously, as a musician, you understand the magnitude of our loss when our great pipe organ was destroyed by the March tornado. After the storm, with a gaping hole in the ceiling of the chancel and debris scattered over the area, the pipes of the organ, as well as the console, looked like pick-up sticks. So sad... But above all, the large cross that hangs from the ceiling in the sanctuary was still hanging – with rubble all around. That has been a source of inspiration for us.

Good progress has been made in the repair work, and the organ committee is close to a decision on the organ. As you can well imagine, it will be years – 3 to 5 – before the organ is built and installed.

Support from other churches and other Christians has been overwhelming. God does have a plan for us all.

We thank you again!

God's blessings,
The Members of Wesley United Methodist

Children at VBS stuck their names and sins on the cross, while learning that Jesus loves and forgives.

IT'S TOO HOT to be outside so why not come play hand chimes! I would like to have everyone meet on Wednesday, August 23, at 6 pm. There is a great new piece to learn with the hope of playing it in late September or early October. Remember, being able to read music is not a requirement; just need to know how to count.

Judy Rouse

Have you ever dreamed of having a great job with an awesome title like . . . Barista!

The new Oasis Coffee Shop is looking for volunteers to fill such a title. If this is something that might interest you, stop by and talk to Diana Gilbert or give her a call at 886-3830.

The objective of the nonprofit coffee shop is to provide after school activities for kids as well as groups and classes for adults. It may involve music, drama or even a little tutoring for those that need it. There will also be bible study groups, knitting classes and a number of special events.

In addition to supporting programs for youth, each month 10 percent of sales will go to either the Friends of the Animals, the Food Pantry, Backpack Buddies or the Ministerial Fund.

If you get a chance, stop by and have a cup of your favorite caffeinated (or decaffeinated) beverage. It's a wonderful place to meet with friends or sit with a good book! Oasis hours are Monday through Friday from 7:30 am till 1:00 pm and 3:00 till 7:00 pm. Saturdays from 7:30 am till 1:00 pm.

Christian Chaos is looking for an experienced keyboard player beginning this summer. If you are interested please contact the church office for additional details. This is a great ministry opportunity to get more involved....and with a fun group of musicians! Contact the church office for details.

We would also like to thank Andrew Allen for being our keyboard player for the last year and a half! We wish him the best of luck with his new endeavors.
